

May 16th Membership Dinner Meeting

Future Development in Pima County

Ramón Valadez, Pima County Supervisor is a lifelong resident of Pima County. He attended and graduated from Wakefield Middle School and Pueblo High School. In 1989, he graduated from the University of Arizona with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering. Immediate past Chair of the Pima County Board of Supervisors, a two-time past Chair and current member of the Pima Association of Governments Regional Council and Regional Transportation Authority Board. In 2000, was elected to the Arizona State Senate from Legislative District 10 after having served in the Arizona State House of Representatives since he was first elected in 1996.

Ramón has been actively involved in his community since high school. He has focused much of his time and energies on issues affecting children and youth in such important areas as education, youth employment, homelessness, crime prevention, health care and recreation. As a result of his community service, has received numerous awards from organizations including the University of Arizona Alumni Association, League of Mexican American Women, Labor Council for Latin American Advancement, Pima County, Pueblo Gardens Neighborhood Association, Federal Bureau of Investigation, League of United Latin American Citizens, and the Tucson Juneteenth Committee.
